“Jazz, blues, country, folk, bluegrass ... it's all here. Annie Rosen's versatile, vintage-tinged voice is the perfect match for the Hedonists' ace musicianship.” – Albany Times Union

Take a little bit of folk roots/Americana and mix it with acoustic blues, vintage jazz, and Western swing, and you end up with this fun four-piece Albany-based band.

Annie and the Hedonists is known for its great lead singer, Annie Rosen, and the tight harmonies and superb musicianship of the Hedonists, a.k.a. Jonny Rosen (guitar and vocals), Peter Davis (clarinet, tenor guitar, piano, and vocals), and Don Young (upright bass and vocals). They interpret the songs of the great female blues artists of the 1920s, 30s and 40s, including Bessie Smith, Sippie Wallace, Memphis Minnie, Ma Rainey, Billie Holiday, and Ella Fitzgerald. “Great singing, great musicianship, authentic and real.” – North Country Public Radio
